Furniture
Caskets
Linoleum

The greatest display ever brought to Appomattox in Aluminum Ware. You can positively see it in any cooking utensil needed. Don't fail to look over this wonderful exhibit.

A. H. GREGORY

Next Door Farmers National Bank

Appomattox, Virginia.

Porch Columns

TURNED AND COLONIAL, ALL SIZES

Roofing

RUBBER, SHINGLES AND TIN.

Windows, Doors and Blinds,
Sheirock and Plaster Board,
Paints, Oils and Varnishes,
Wall Board,
Building Hardware,
Complete Line of Building Material and Mill Work.
Be sure and get our prices before placing your order.

FARMVILLE MANUFACTURING CO
Farmville, Virginia

We are offering an accumulation of

REMNANTS

At Special Prices

Appomattox Dry Goods And Notion Company

Appomattox Virginia.

IMPORTANT NEWS QUICKLY TOLD

Happenings in Various Sections Of Old Virginia

NEWS ITEMS FOR OUR READERS

Danville.—Senator Claude A. Swanson, who has been visiting his old home at Swansonville, and who spent a night here with his brother, J. P. Swanson, left for Washington, expressing great confidence in the success of the Democratic ticket in the November election and declaring the chances of the Democratic party are unusually good.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Mrs. Sarah F. Mathews, regional director for the Third district of the League of Women Voters, is here for a campaign to interest women of Lynchburg in voting, having recently completed such a campaign in Norfolk. The qualified woman's vote is far below for the coming election what it was for the presidential election four years ago.

* * *

Fredericksburg. — Special Officer Charles M. Shelton, charged with the murder of Charles H. Baker, has been given his liberty on a bond of $10,000 for his appearance in the Corporation Court on December 18. Application for bill was made late Monday by Shelton's counsel, W. W. Butzner, F. W. Coleman and W. B. F. Cole before Judge John T. Goolrick, who granted it and fixed the amount of $10,000.

* * *

Newport News.—Gerrish Gassaway, former secretary of the Newport News Chamber of Commerce, has been made general manager of the Wilmington, Del., Chamber of Commerce, according to advices received here. Mr. Gassaway left here to enter the advertising business in Baltimore and Wilmington, which is planning a great port development program, employed him a few days ago.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Clara Thompson, William Kern, Norman Pettierew and Harry Drinkard, all white, were held in Amherst county for the next grand jury by Squire Shelton, to answer charges of violating the State prohibition law. The charge against the woman is having seven gallons of moonshine liquor in her home and against the men for having spirits in their possession.

* * *

Ashland.—Two persons were injured here just before dark this afternoon when an auto driven by L. F. Stanley, giving his address as 1521 West Carey street, Richmond street car driven by James Watts, a Hanover county officer, living near Richmond. Mr. Watts' mother was the most severely injured, she suffering a broken collarbone and internal injuries which may prove fatal, it is feared. Mr. Watts had his arm broken and his face was badly cut by glass.

* * *

Roanoke.—Scientific tests for the purpose of determining the damage done to freight by impacts of freight cars coming together are being conducted in the local yards of the Norfolk and Western Railway. Doors and tops of freight cars have been removed and they are shifted and coupled at various speeds and in such position as to make it possible to take moving pictures of the effect of sudden stopping and starting on freight in the cars.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Mrs. E. H. Millner, resident of this city, suffered numerous minor cuts and bruises in a fall twenty-five feet into an old well in the yard of her home, which was thought to have been closed up years ago. A chicken house had been built over the old well. Walking over this the top gave way and this disclosed the fact that the earth with which the well was filled had disappeared. Firemen were called and they assisted in the rescue of Mrs. Millner.

* * *

Winchester.—When Lee Dick, of Clearbrook, went into his barn Tuesday he could hardly recognize the family car, which is usually kept in a box stall, as there were missing two wheels, the speedometer, the carburetor, headlights and several other attachments. Later in the day he claimed to have seen all his equipment on a car at a camp site occupied by George and Arthur Decker and C. L. Davis, of Tioga county, Pa. Justice Tavenner required the men to return the Dick property; pay all the court costs and leave the county and State within seven days. Their automobile was impounded to pay cost of the trial.

* * *

Pressing.—The sheep-raising industry has been at a very low ebb for years in this section, but now small flocks are to be seen here and there although it is doubtful if they thrive as well as they used to, when there were large boundaries of woodland where they ran, seldom requiring much attention except in the more rigorous weather of winter. The old mountain stock would subsist when the improved stock would hardly thrive. Forty years ago sheep sold at from $1.50 $2 by the head, while now an ordinary sheep will bring $1.

* * *

Derryville.—After serving for four years as an Episcopal missionary to Yangchow, China, Miss Mary Jaquelin Smith is on her way home and will be married early in September to John R. Castleman, of Clarke county. Miss Smith is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Jaquelin Smith, of Wickliffe, Clarke county. She is a graduate of Goucher College, Baltimore, and has been in China for the past four years. Mr. Castleman is a son of the late [illegible] S. Castleman, who was Chief of Scouts on Mosby's men in the Confederate Army.

* * *

Danville.—The Patrick county apple crop now almost ready to be harvested will be the largest ever produced in that county, a systematic survey of the orchards reveals. A quarter of a million barrels of apples will be put up, the estimate indicates—the largest amount harvested in any one season. In 1920 when the last big crop was grown resulted in 200,000 barrels being gathered. Reasons given for the increase are an unusually favorable growing season and an absence of late frosts, together with the fact that additional orchards are now coming into bearing.

* * *

Covington.—Motions of counsel for McKinley Smith, member of the Scott-Thacker gang, to set aside the verdict rendered by a jury in Alleghany County Circuit Court, in which the defendant was given a $50 fine and six months in jail, for violating the prohibition law, were set aside by Judge Anderson at a hearing. Motion made by counsel requesting a suspension of sentence was overruled by Judge Anderson on the ground that the law allowed the court no discretion in this matter. In view of the claim made by counsel for Smith that the defendant was not physically able to stand a six months' term in jail, Judge Anderson stated that he would continue the motion to set aside the verdict in order to allow time for the physical examination of the defendant by physicians appointed by the court. Any statement from the court ruled, was merely postponing the day when the sentence would have to be served, unless an appeal to the Supreme Court is sustained.

* * *

Harrisonburg.—Rockingham's only centenarian and one of the oldest persons in Virginia, Horace Payne, aged 105 years, was laid to rest at Singers Glen, in the county where his entire life was spent. Payne died at the home of a niece. Spencer Sipe. He had lived here in a rather out-of-the-way part of the county and living a secluded life, few persons from those living in the immediate neighborhood knew of the very remarkable man. Records produced by relatives, however, show that Payne was born in 1819. For many years Payne and his mother conducted a tavern near the foot of the Alleghany Mountains on one of the leading routes to the West. Later he turned to farming and tilled the soil until advanced age forced him to give it up. Payne's mother, married when she was 15 years of age, came to Rockingham from New Virginia. She lived to be nearly 100 years old. Of the family of twelve children, only one survives. They are, Mrs. John Wenger, of Dayton, and Henry Payne, of Waynesboro.

* * *

Richmond.—To witness the rare sight of 400 bob-white or quail being hatched in one day at Mr. McAtee, assistant in the U. S. Bio-Food Search of the United States Biological Survey, was the guest of Colonel W. McDonald Lee, State Commissioner of Game and Inland Fisheries, at the State Game Farm at Windsor Shades. Accompanying Mr. McAtee were Herbert L. Stoddard and Sydney Stringer, of the United States Biological Survey's quail investigation in Georgia and Florida. Approximately 1,700 quail are now nesting at the State Game Farm. Already 1,700 young quail are on the feed, and approximately 500 ring-necked pheasants have been hatched this year. These young birds will be raised in quarantine and then shipped to game sanctuaries in all sections of Virginia, W. B. Coleman, in charge of the State Game Farm, was highly praised by Mr. McAtee for the success he has made in raising quail. The Virginia department is the most successful in the entire country along these lines, according to the government officials. The State Game Farm has 160 pair of wrens for quail. The eggs are collected weekly and are set under bantam hens. The young quail are fed on clabber until they are large enough to take care of themselves. After five days they follow the foster mother and are apparently as domesticated as young chickens. Colonel Lee was greatly pleased with his inspection, as was M. D. Hart, his secretary, who accompanied the party. It is expected that the farm will raise double the number of quail freed that year on the State sanctuaries, and that these birds will multiply fast enough to meet the needs of the ever-growing number of hunters.

* * *

Winchester.—Citizens of Winchester and strangers within her gates were on their good behavior during the past month, according to the grand jury of the Corporation Court. Being a regular grand jury session, a jury was summoned in due form by the city sheriff, but when it was discovered the Commonwealth had no cases to present and none of the jurors knew of any law being trifled with, there was nothing for Judge Whiting to do but discharge the jury. The conduct of citizens generally was found to be above reproach.

Need $726 to Wed

Dublah banks have forbidden male employees receiving less than 4,000 crowns (about $726) a year to marry. In many of the banks most of the clerks have to work several years before attaining the minimum marriage salary.

Spoiled the Dinner

An unexpected visit of some relatives threw a North side home into a flurry in an attempt to produce a very tempting dinner for the hungry guests. As the call for dinner came the smallest member of the family rushed to the dining room and seeing the chicken, which was the crowning glory of the feast, broke out with: "Oh, mother, is that the chicken that had the broken leg?"—Columbus Dispatch.

Classified Ads.

For Sale—Large feather bed. Also old time solid walnut stead with mattress and springs. Apply to this office. 1-t

For Sale—One beautiful building lot, well located in Appomattox at a bargain and on easy terms if desired.
A. H. CLEMENT.

For Sale—Good pair work mules, sound and quick. Terms and price very reasonable. Write X, this office. 1-t

Insurance—Why not insure your property with a reliable agency and save money. Phone or write me—rates and satisfaction assured.
A. H. CLEMENT Agent.

For sale—Old solid walnut bedstead, mattress and springs. Apply this Office 1-t

For Sale—Criminal warrants $1 a hundred Civil warrants $1.50 a hundred; at this office.

WANTED—Men or women to take orders for genuine guaran-teed hosiery direct from mill to wearer. Experience unnecessary; salary $15 a week full time, $2.50 an hour spare time. Beautiful Spring line. INTERNATIONAL STOCKING MILLS, 1-3-6w Norristown, Pa.

Diamond Wheat Wanted—We will pay highest market price, either local or carloads ship to us here.
MOON-TAYLOR COMPANY, Lynchburg, Va. 1-2-3w

River Farm For Sale or Rent—I will rent or sell my farm of 178 acres on Appomattox River 7 miles North of Hixburg for one-fourth of crops.
W. R. FORD, Appomattox, Va. 1-24-tf

Commissioner's Sale of valuable town lots at Appomattox and Farm lands near Chap in Appomattox County

In execution of a decree of the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, Va., entered at the June term, 1924, in the chancery cause of W. H. Chap, Jr., and others against J. F. J. Fleshman, Administrator of the estate of J. F. J. Fleshman and Martha T. Fleshman deceased and others, the undersigned as commissioners will offer for sale as Public Auction

On FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 1924, at 10 A. M. on the premises, in front of the residence of the late J. F. J. Fleshman in the town of Appomattox, Virginia, the following described property, to-wit:

All that lot or parcel of land lying and being in the town of Appomattox, Virginia, and fronting on Main street and Church street and bounded as follows: Beginning at the corner of Main street and Church street, and running thence with Church street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Main street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Church street 200 feet to a stake on Main street; thence with Main street 200 feet to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less, and being the same property conveyed to J. F. J. Fleshman by deed from Mrs. Mary E. Chap, dated January 1, 1900, and recorded in the clerk's office of Appomattox county, Virginia, in deed book 39, page 1.

Also all that lot or parcel of land lying and being in the town of Appomattox, Virginia, and fronting on Church street and bounded as follows: Beginning at the corner of Church street and Main street, and running thence with Main street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Church street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Main street 200 feet to a stake on Church street; thence with Church street 200 feet to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less, and being the same property conveyed to J. F. J. Fleshman by deed from Mrs. Mary E. Chap, dated January 1, 1900, and recorded in the clerk's office of Appomattox county, Virginia, in deed book 39, page 1.

Also all that lot or parcel of land lying and being in the town of Appomattox, Virginia, and fronting on Church street and bounded as follows: Beginning at the corner of Church street and Main street, and running thence with Church street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Main street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Church street 200 feet to a stake on Main street; thence with Main street 200 feet to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less, and being the same property conveyed to J. F. J. Fleshman by deed from Mrs. Mary E. Chap, dated January 1, 1900, and recorded in the clerk's office of Appomattox county, Virginia, in deed book 39, page 1.

Also all that lot or parcel of land lying and being in the town of Appomattox, Virginia, and fronting on Main street and bounded as follows: Beginning at the corner of Main street and Church street, and running thence with Main street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Church street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Main street 200 feet to a stake on Church street; thence with Church street 200 feet to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less, and being the same property conveyed to J. F. J. Fleshman by deed from Mrs. Mary E. Chap, dated January 1, 1900, and recorded in the clerk's office of Appomattox county, Virginia, in deed book 39, page 1.

Also all that lot or parcel of land lying and being in the town of Appomattox, Virginia, and fronting on Church street and bounded as follows: Beginning at the corner of Church street and Main street, and running thence with Church street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Main street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Church street 200 feet to a stake on Main street; thence with Main street 200 feet to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less, and being the same property conveyed to J. F. J. Fleshman by deed from Mrs. Mary E. Chap, dated January 1, 1900, and recorded in the clerk's office of Appomattox county, Virginia, in deed book 39, page 1.

Also all that lot or parcel of land lying and being in the town of Appomattox, Virginia, and fronting on Main street and bounded as follows: Beginning at the corner of Main street and Church street, and running thence with Main street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Church street 200 feet to a stake; thence with a line parallel with Main street 200 feet to a stake on Church street; thence with Church